HOPE.

When the twilight of the dawning,
Blooms in sunlight to the day,
When the roses in their sweetness,
Make the sunshine cross the way.

When sweet love thy soul enchanting,
Pauses near, thy heart to reach,
And the effort all ennobling,
Make thy soul unbend, beseech.

How say there's naught that's worth
the living,
All's dark, nor cold, nor drear,
Take heart ye who pilgrims are,
Seemest wan and void of cheer.

Plod on further in thy seeking,
Cross the bridge of sighs and tears,
Let life's fingers tune the heart-
strings,
And lend sweetness to thy years.

Life holds naught but sweetest
glories,
And the memories of each day,
Will be ever peaceful stories,
If you love and teach and pray.

Series of Parties Given

For Mrs. E. H. Thompson.

Miss Mary Lou Peyton and Mrs. William Melard Connor entertained at a series of parties the past week in honor of their attractive guest, Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison Thompson, of Sound Bayou, Conn.

Hydrangeas, gladioli, nasturtiums and ferns were used in artistic effect in the parlors and on the lawn where bridge was played.

On Tuesday Mrs. T. G. Owen made top score and received a Japanese luncheon set; Mrs. S. B. Street, Jr., cut the consolation and was presented a Japanese, hand-painted picture. The booby fell to Mrs. F. C. Owen. Dainty score cards of Japanese scenes were used. The guest list for Tuesday afternoon included Mrs. T. G. Owen, Mrs. J. W. Carr, Mrs. Charles Frierson, Mrs. G. M. Flynn, Mrs. George Palmer, Mrs. F. C. Owen, Mrs. B. L. Owen, Mrs. Charles Hays, Mrs. McQueen, Mrs. Ira L. Gaston, Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Lee Caine, Mrs. Sim-rall, Mrs. R. A. Carson, Mrs. P. W. Baker, Mrs. J. T. Searcy, Mrs. Lydia Sykes, Mrs. S. B. Street, Jr., Mrs. Stickney, Misses Corinne Richards, Sara Neilson, Madeska Kirksey, Lillie Mae Randle, Annie Stephenson, and Beulah Culbertson.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. D. T. Gaston, Mrs. Thompson and Miss Mattie Lou Stephenson were the winners of the prizes. A salad course and an ice course were served. Those who enjoyed this delightful afternoon were: Mrs. D. T. Gaston, Mrs. Coleman Hamilton, Mrs. A. L. Jones, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. Symons, Mrs. Burton Lincoln, Mrs. H. M. Waddell, Mrs. Henry Beard, Mrs. Slaughter, Misses Cornelia Hudson, John Ellen Walker, Frances Dashiell, Hattie Wood, Louise Wood, Elizabeth Kennebrew, Susie Will Gunter, Katherine Swift, Emma Bell, Annie Stephenson, Mattie Lou Stephenson and Miss Roth. Again on Friday afternoon a number of guests were invited to an informal reception at this hospitable home. A delicious orange ice was served the guests on this occasion.

Euchre Party Given for Chit-Chat Club Members.

Miss Frances Humphries entertained the members of the Chit-Chat Club on Thursday afternoon with a euchre party.

The games were played on the spacious lawn where a profusion of yellow daisies were used artistically. The first prize was won by Miss Pauline Harris, and she was given a pair of dainty beauty pins. Miss Katherine Cox won the lone hand, a box of correspondence cards, and Miss Eleanor Steele, the booby, a crepe de chene handkerchief. Little Julia Coleman Humphries passed score cards.

The guest list included Misses Thankful Howell, Jennie Sharp, Eleanor Steele, Etta Edwards, Nina Bell, Katherine Peck, Marie Cady, Nell Carter, Susanna Champey, Dorothy Leigh, Margaret Rhett, Katherine Maer, Eloise Hays, Mary McQueen, Louise Morgan, Helen Eujen, Grace Wright, Lucile Kaye, Katherine Cox, Emmie Chandler, Fannie Moore Evans and Pauline Harris.

Mrs. William Millard Connor and little son, "Billy," expect to leave soon for North Carolina for a visit.

Several Pretty Parties Given

For Mrs. Joseph Stickney.

Among the many beautiful courtesies tendered Mrs. Joseph Stickney, of Greensboro, Ala., the attractive guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Street, Jr., was the bridge party given on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. T. J. Locke, Jr., at her handsome home on North Seventh street. Immense bowls of hydrangeas were used throughout the rooms. The guest prize presented Mrs. Stickney was a pair of silk hose. Mrs. J. T. Searcy won the first prize, a deck of cards in an ivory case. Mrs. Ira L. Gaston received the booby, a palm-leaf fan tied in the national colors.

The guest list included Mesdames S. B. Street, Jr., Joseph Stickney, P. W. Maer, William Simpson, G. M. Flynn, W. H. Brooks, J. T. Searcy, R. E. Johnston, Lee Caine, Will Watson, Louis Walker and Ira L. Gaston.

Mrs. Ira L. Gaston entertained in compliment to Mrs. Stickney on Thursday morning and had two tables of bridge. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. G. M. Flynn had three tables of bridge for Mrs. Stickney.

Misses Wood Entertain Charmingly

For Miss Marquis Rich.

Misses Harriet and Louise Wood entertained charmingly on Saturday morning for Miss Marquis Rich, of Atlanta.

The national colors were beautifully placed throughout the rooms. The score cards with a miniature flag were used.

A salad course was served after the games. The prizes were unusually attractive, the first being a box of correspondence cards; the consolation, a "kewpie" in uniform.

The guests were: Mrs. Albert Herring, Jr., Mrs. R. E. Johnston, Mrs. W. W. Darden, Mrs. William Connor, Mrs. E. H. Thompson, Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. Malcolm Tabb, Misses Mary Lou Peyton, Sadie Mae Rosenzweig, Blossom Hopkins, Georgia Hopkins, Frances Dashiell, Annie Stephenson, Miss Lou Stephenson and John Ellen Walker.

Pretty Card Party Given at Twentieth Century Club.

The Twentieth Century Club members enjoyed a delightful card party on Monday afternoon at their rooms on Main street.

Japanese decorations and many beautiful flowers were used in the rooms.

Mrs. Henry Beard received the first prize, a box of writing paper. Mrs. W. F. Patty captured the lone hand, a deck of cards. The consolation was won by Mrs. James Pope and she received a box of correspondence paper.

Those on the reception committee were: Miss Frances Dashiell, chairman, Miss Cornelia Hudson, Miss Hattie Wood, Miss Louise Wood, Miss Jennie Sharp, Miss Lucile Kaye, Miss Fannie Moore Evans, Miss Annie Stephenson, Miss Emma Bell and Miss Nell Carter.

Painter-Mitchell

Wedding Yesterday.

Prof. L. G. Painter, of the Industrial Institute and College, and Miss Edna Mitchell, of Goodman, Miss., were quietly married yesterday afternoon at the McKinley Sanitarium, the wedding having been solemnized by Rev. W. S. Slack, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The bride who is a beautiful young lady graduated from the I. I. and C. in 1915, and is pleasantly remembered here as having taken part as "Crystal Clear" in the big pageant which took place on the college campus last year.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for Baltimore, Md., where they expect to spend the summer.

Miss Steele Entertains

For Miss Edwards.

Miss Etta Edwards, who is the guest of Miss Eleanor Steele, was the honoree at a beautiful party given by Miss Steele on Saturday afternoon when she had as her guests the members of the Chit-Chat Club.

The decorations were red, white and blue. The prizes given were silk stockings, the guest prize red; the first prize, white, and the booby, blue. Cards were played at four tables, after which a salad course was served.

A Thought for Today.
And where we love is home,
Home that our feet may leave,
But not our hearts.
The chain may lengthen,
But never parts.

—Holmes.

In the man whose childhood has known caresses, there is always a fibre of memory that can be touched to gentle issues, says George Eliott.

There is only one thought that everybody is thinking now, and that is the marching away of our own brave laddies to fight for their country. Since the first news on Sunday of the call for the soldiers to report, for the object of bringing order and peace down in Mexico, every mother's son and daughter has been experiencing thrills, and yesterday, turn where one would, there were soldier boys walking the streets and preparing to march away. Today, if goodbyes have to be said, there will be a God speed you, good luck to you, God bless you every one and bring you home as sound and safe as we send you forth.—Mobile Register.

Pretty Decorations at Rifleman's Ball.

The decorations for the Rifleman's Ball, given at Lake Park last Wednesday night, were unusually beautiful and those who were in charge deserve much credit for their work. The committee included Mrs. C. H. Ayres, chairman, Mrs. G. M. Flynn, Mrs. T. W. Harris, Mrs. Wm. Simpson, Misses Eleanor Steele and Cornelia Hudson.

Miss Loggins Quietly Married

To Mr. Jerome Jones.

The many friends of Miss Elizabeth Loggins, of Winona, will be surprised to know that she was married on Friday to Mr. Jerome Jones at Cleveland. Miss Loggins was a student at the I. I. and C. last session.

Miss Elizabeth Kennebrew left Thursday for Madison, Wisconsin, to again attend the summer school of the University. On her return she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Hays, in Little Rock, Ark.

Miss Laura and Mary Foote Halbert are in Meridian visiting the Misses Wilkinson. Miss Nancy Halbert is attending the normal at the A. and M. College.

Mr. H. K. Robinson leaves Wednesday for Washington to join Mrs. Robinson, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pratt and children, of Memphis, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Franklin.

Quite a merry party enjoyed a barbecue and picnic supper at Mullen's well on Friday evening.

Mrs. F. M. Sandifer and children, of Greenwood, are visiting Capt. John Neilson.

Miss Bettie Whitfield expects to leave soon for Monticello to spend the summer.

Miss Mary Gleen McCaul is spending a few days in Vicksburg with friends.

Miss Louise Cox is visiting friends in Laurel and Moss Point.

Sacred Concert at Park.

A sacred concert will be given at Lake Park this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock and the following program will be rendered by the Princess Theatre orchestra:

March, Love and Glory; Overture, Eagle's Nest; A Little Love, a Little Kiss; Intermezzo, Chicora; Cantilena, by Bohn; Cornet Solo, Rosary; Overture, Lutespiel; Vocal Solo, Mrs. Peacher; Waltz, Blue Danube; Idyl, Whispering Palms; Silver Threads Among the Gold (by request); Star Spangled Banner.

Patterson-McWilliams.

A quiet wedding that came as a surprise to their many friends was solemnized Wednesday night at 9:30 o'clock, when Mrs. L. D. Patterson, was married to Mr. L. D. Patterson, the ceremonies being conducted by Rev. W. L. Duren, pastor of the First Methodist church.

After spending several days in Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, will go to the groom's home in Foley, Ala., to reside.

Putting in New Cable.

Besides the rewiring of different telephones over the city, the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company is making quite a number of other improvements. A corps of men, about twenty in number, will be here for a few weeks putting about $10,000.

Mr. Vivian Halbert is enjoying a few days vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halbert, at Calcedonia.

LOST—A purse containing some money and valuable papers. Thought to have lost same in or near court house. Finder will be liberally rewarded if returned to Gen. E. T. Sykes.

"What's In A Name?"

What does it matter about a name for a special sale when the sale is one of The Woman's Store's?

The public knows that when this store announces a sale that it means

A GENUINE BARGAIN EVENT

no matter what name we give it. If you read carefully the list of wonderful values listed below you will quickly be convinced that the values offered are the best obtainable. The values offered are all the more wonderful when you consider that the price of practically every item in the dry goods line has advanced in the past several months until at present many goods we sell at regular price are sold at less than wholesale cost. Therefore if you take advantage of this sale and buy the values we offer you will save more than you ever did before at any other sale. These goods are fresh merchandise and most of them will be higher when we go in the market to re-buy, but we want to keep busy and at the same time raise some cash to meet bills and buy new goods, hence these greatly reduced prices which go into effect and ends Monday, July 3rd. Seven days of genuine bargains.

SATURDAY, JUNE 24th

Spring Suits and Dresses

At Less Than Half Price

The Spring Suits and Dresses that we have on hand are all of the newest and best materials. We have seen some of the styles that will be worn the coming fall and we find that there is only a slight difference between this spring's styles and the styles that will be worn next fall. We could, perhaps, keep our suits until the fall opens and get regular prices, but it is not our policy to carry goods over from one season to another—rather sell some of the stock at a loss than do so—and that's why you can buy these new stylish suits and dresses now, much below the factory cost. These prices won't cover the cost of making.
